February 1940 after a decade of worldwide depression, World War II had begun in Europe and Asia with Germany on the march and Japan at war with China. The global crisis was in a crescendo. America's top songwriter Irving Berlin had captured the nation's mood a little more than a year before with his patriotic hymn 'God Bless America'. Woody Guthrie was having none of it. Near starving and penniless, he was traveling from Texas to New York to make a new start as he eked his way across the country by bus and by thumb. He couldn't avoid Berlin's song. Some people say that it was when he was freezing by the side of the road in a Pennsylvania snowstorm that he conceived of a rebuttal. It would encompass the dark realities of the Dust Bowl and Great Depression and it would begin with the lines 'This Land Is Your Land' 'This Land Is My Land' in this land that I love. John shaw writes the dual biography of these beloved american songs examining the lives of their authors he finds that guthrie and berlin had more in common than either could have guessed though guthrie s image was defined by train hopping irving berlin had also risen from homelessness having worked his way up from the streets of new york at the same time this land that i love sheds new light on our patriotic musical heritage from yankee doodle and the star spangled banner to martin luther king s recitation from my country tis of thee on the steps of the lincoln memorial in august 1963 delving into the deeper history of war songs minstrelsy ragtime country music folk music and african american spirituals shaw unearths a rich vein of half forgotten musical traditions with the aid of archival research he uncovers new details about the songs including a never before printed verse for this land is your land the result is a fascinating narrative that refracts and re envisions america s tumultuous history through the prism of two unforgettable anthems
